

International Credit Union Day | October 18, 2018

The credit union movement is steeped in a rich history of collaboration across divides. For nearly two centuries, financial cooperatives have encouraged people of every race, gender and belief to come together and give their all towards the betterment of their communities. It's about people helping people. That's why credit unions always offer a platinum lining.

This year, we're celebrating International Credit Union Day's platinum anniversary on Thursday, October 18, a chance to look back after 70 years and be thankful for the lives and communities that have been improved by the unique principles and actions of our movement.

As has been our custom in the past, Media Members/U of P will celebrate International Credit Union Day at all three of our branch locations as well as at Presbyterian Hospital. Everyone who stops by that day will receive a free gift and soft pretzel while supplies last. We will also be holding several drawings throughout the day at all locations which will give our members who attend a chance to win a prize.

Be sure to mark your calendar and stop in at one of our locations to celebrate with us!

On Site Marketing Visits

James Fisher, Member Service Rep at Presbyterian Hospital at on site visit.

Thanks to the hospitality shown to your Credit Union by the University of Pennsylvania health system, we have been fortunate to have on site visits showcasing our many services. As an employee of the University and the health system, the credit union is a benefit that you are entitled to utilize. So far we have had visits to Presbyterian, HUP and Pennsylvania hospitals. Our marketing director, Shirl Schanzenbach, has been at each venue to give out our packets with new account, loan, VISA debit and credit card information as well as answering questions. Keep an eye out for Shirl's smiling face and be sure to stop by for some refreshments or just to say hello.
